

Guidance to the Final Exam

The Final will be comprehensive. It is a close book exam, but I'll write down all the related parameters, formula, and equations needed. It will be based on your past three exams. The best way to get prepared is to go through all the three exams and read the corresponding text which you are not sure fully understanding.

Wish you good luck in the final.